ADMINISTRATION

The 1969-1970 Clintonia staff takes great pleasure in dedicating this yearbook to Mr. Junius Futrell, the high school principal. Although the job was new to Mr. Futrell, the students appreciated his willingness to listen and his friendly personality. The student body joins the faculty in wishing Mr. Futrell a successful next year also. Mr. Futrell was a former chemistry teacher at C.C.H.S.

English Department

Authorities say that the teacher of English should have at least 2000 goals. Most people realize goals should cover the broad aim of more effective communication and will, therefore, relate to listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking. The seven members who compose the Clinton High English Department try to keep these ideas in mind when they plan unit work. Three years of English are required for all students and a fourth year is optional; three ability tracks are available each year. Mrs. Ralph Rinkenberger serves as the department head.

Class

This year the seniors face the future with high hopes. Upon graduation, each will go his own way into the world to make a name for himself. Many prepare excitedly for college and marriage while others plan to work or enter the armed services. Years later, they all will reminisce about their great times such as proms, homecomings, and class activities. During these four years, they have advanced not only academically. Their graduation will close a chapter in their lives, but the next few years will open up another.

Rosaclaire Solines is the 1969-1970 American Field Service exchange student and resides with the Ray Lewises and their two daughters, Kathe and Barb, of Violet Valley. Rosaclaire is a native of Guayaquil, Ecuador. She has been in the United States twice before her trip here this year. In Ecuador, Rosaclaire has one sister Kristie aged 15. Rosaclaire's father is a representative for the American Book Company. While at Clinton High, Rosa is taking such subjects as English, American history, speech and dramatics, and S.O.P. She is also active in G.A.A., F.T.A., Pep Club, and Student Council. She enjoys such pastimes as bowling, skating, sledding, and playing the piano.

In early January, Rosaclaire was visited by her father who was here on a business trip from Ecuador. He spent the weekend at the Lewis home and was introduced to many people throughout the community.

We hope that Rosaclaire will enjoy her year with us as much as we have enjoyed having her.

Junior Class

The junior class has been very busy this past year. Their main project was to make money for the junior-senior prom. Some of their money making projects were football concession stands, basketball concession stands, slave days, car washes, and selling Christmas wrap. The juniors honored the seniors with a prom in the spring. Mr. Adcock and Mrs. Kline were their dedicated sponsors.

The Clinton Maroons were co-champions this year of the Cornbelt Conference with a 5-1 conference record and a 7-2 overall record. Quarterback Steve Hagenbruch and spilt end Mike Sprague were all conference choices. Steve was the "Player of the Year" from the DECATUR HERALD, the All Area Safety from the DECATUR HERALD, a member of the Elite Eleven from the CHAMPAIGN NEWS GAZETTE, and was all conference for offense and defense. He had a total of offense of 1,816 yards.

Mike was the All Area Spilt End for the DECATUR HERALD and had 24 receptions for 612 yards.

Several other junior and sophomore boys lettered in football. These boys were Steve Allen, Jim Devine, Phil Lamkin, Jim Liles, John Pine, Ray Rasor, and Benny Nixon. The managers were David Brown, David Ballanger, and John Evans.

The team is to be congratulated for a wonderful season.

The Clinton Cross Country team, sad to say, did not have a very successful year. The lack of victories attributed to inexperience, as only one of the team had previously lettered in the sport. Senior Letterman Dave Gibson was injured most of the season. This year's lettermen were: T. Bostwick, R. Bushing, K. Brown, J. Evans, D. Harmon, and A. Lynch.

The Clinton varsity wrestling team ended their season on a happy note with a 9-7 record. The Maroon Warriors, in their second year of varsity competition, won many individual awards were as follows: 1) John Pine and Bob West, 1st Place; 2) Kelly Sharkey, 2nd Place; and 3) Dennis Carter, Joel Bray, and David Nixon, 3rd Place.

Wrestling

Bob West, a sophomore in the 98 lb. weight class, won four championships and advanced to the State Wrestling Tournament held at Illinois State University. Bob is the first wrestler to win a berth in the state tournament.

The junior-varsity wrestling team closed out the season with a fine 10-3-2 record.

Coach Sexton was happy with his teams' efforts and individual achievements. Next year, the teams' future looks even brighter with nine out of twelve regulars returning. Coach Sexton has already set goals for next years squad. He feels the goals can be accomplished if the wrestlers are willing to PAY THE PRICE.

Pom Pom Girls

The Pom Pom Girls are a new addition to C.C.H.S. this year. They have done a very good job of carrying out the different pom pom routines for the football games and parades.

The sponsor of the Pom Pom Girls this year was Mr. Brewster who was also in charge of Band and Majorettes. Helping Mr. Brewster was Kathy Lentz, a former C.C.H.S. student and head majorette. Both Mr. Brewster and Kathy Lentz helped in arranging the pom pom routines and the music they were set to.

Majorettes

KNEELING: Debbie Hardin, Lindsey Bell, Susan Bell, Candy McIntosh. STANDING: Nancy Crang, Patti Howell.

There were six majorettes this year. They did their routines at all the home football games and at the homecoming parade. Their sponsor was Mr. Brewster. Together they did a very good job of carrying out their routines and leading the band.

ACTIVITIES

Suspense Grows for Queen's Title

Homecoming week kept everyone busy this year. Friday, September 26, 1969 in CCHS's annual homecoming assembly, our previous queen Jan Koons wished all the 1969-1970 homecoming queen candidates good luck. After which, each of the candidates was introduced: Debbie Turney escorted by Steve Hagenbruch, Debbie Cooper escorted by Dave Freese, Diane Smith escorted by Brian Weaver, Sharon Snyder escorted by Mike Sprague, and Terry Wagner escorted by Tom Hayes. The cheerleaders then proceeded to lead the student body in rousing cheers. The mighty Maroons were introduced, and Coach Williams and Coach Sexton spoke.

Clinton Beats Normal

September 26, 1969 was the game slated between the Clinton Maroons and the Normal Ironmen. The Ironmen had beaten the Maroons for the past few years, so the victory for the Maroons of 14-8 was well deserved. During the halftime of the game the winners of the float contest, the Girls' Athletic Association, the Future Nurses Club, and the sophomore class, were announced. The homecoming queen candidates were presented, and Jan Koons, the 1968-1969 homecoming queen, presented Debbie Turney with the queen's crown. Student Council president Mike Sprague also gave the queen the traditional roses.

Saturday evening Syl Legner and his Orchestra provided the music for the dance held from 8-11p.m. The Student Council decorated the gym with the theme of "Fall Fantasy." The queen's court was presented again. They were: Debbie Cooper escorted by Tom Smith, Diane Smith escorted by Bob Phillips, Queen Debbie escorted by Doug Tilley, Sharon Snyder escorted by Paul Wampler, and Terry Wagner escorted by Phil Reynolds.

Spoon River Anthology

Al Lonbom, Melanie Bundy, Jan Fulkerson, Sue Wigginton, Dave Moss, Teri Zastrow, Bob Willis, Jacki Blue, Marilyn Rhoades, Bill Conn, Kris Kirkham, and Debbie Zink.

On November 21 and 22, 1969, Clinton High School presented the play SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY by Edgar Lee Masters, a quiet successful lawyer from Chicago. He wrote about life as he saw it as a child through the people of his boyhood home in Spoon River, Illinois. An instant success, SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY, shocked the population of his former home, in the Lewiston-Petersburg area, only 50 miles to the west of Clinton. The populace was shocked because for the first time the "Small town" image was shattered, as were many of the people of the area. Master's work exposed the "sin" of the area through the people actually speaking from their graves in the Spoon River Cemetery. For the first time, the people speak the truth--and they tell all--all the joy, all the sorrow, all the hatred, all the deceit.

How about some presents, kids?

What's in there for me, Santa?

Christmas Joys

During the week before Christmas, the students could not complain of little to do. A Christmas party was given by the F.H.A. who were hosts to the small children of the Clinton area. Games were played, refreshments were served, and Santa visited the children and distributed the Christmas gifts.

The cheerleaders staged a special Christmas pep assembly. They performed a delightful skit with seniors Tom Hayes and Chris Lillard assisting. Tom and Chris portrayed a married couple who were awakened on Christmas Eve by the noises of the elves, wooden soldiers, and dolls, which were portrayed by the cheerleaders.

C.C.H.S. student teacher?

The students were kept very busy before Christmas with helping the school get in the true spirit of Christmas. The Library Club decorated the high school library with a Christmas tree, bells, paper snowflakes and Christmas wreaths.

The student council sponsored its annual Christmas project of sending Christmas packages to the U.S. soldiers in Viet Nam. Each club was responsible for certain articles such as combs, magazines, soap, and candy.

The F.T.A. sponsored a Christmas dance this year. The Bare Wire provided the music for this event of December 20th.

The G.A.A. enjoyed spaghetti at their annual Christmas party. The senior G.A.A. members prepared the food, and the newly initiated members were elected to the clean-up committee. Santa Claus, alias Tom Hayes, distributed the grab bag gifts. The girls presented Mrs. Kratz with a plant.

The varsity wrestlers were the hosts of the Clinton Holiday Tournament and placed an honorable third in the tournament.

Sweetheart Dance

The Sweetheart Dance was held February 7th from 8-11 p.m. The music was provided by the local Misty Quintet. The Future Homemakers of America sponsored the dance and used a theme of "Song of Love." The theme was carried out with a blue and silver color scheme. Streamers accented the ceiling, a mural brought attention to the stage, and the traditional heart was the focal point of the room. The class sweethearts were elected by the individual classes, and the F.H.A. sweetheart was elected by the F.H.A. The class sweethearts were elected as follows: Ilene Tozer-freshmen, Patti Byrne-sophomores, Jean Hickman-juniors, Kathy Goins-seniors. The F.H.A. sweetheart was Marilyn Turner.

Queen Marilyn escorted by Stan Campbell.

Victory

On the fourth attempt, our school referendum finally carried by majority vote. This achievement was due to the many interested citizens and students. Before and on October seventh many committees and programs were set-up to inform the general public: Student Council sponsored a rally, the art classes made badges and posters, store owners consented to have posters in their windows, F.T.A. members called the voting citizens, government classes provided transportation to the polls, and mothers walked door-to-door to inform the townspeople. Yes, the passing of the referendum was truly a well-deserved victory.

The yearbook staff under the sponsorship of Miss Diane Jones worked each day during the eighth period. During the beginning of the year the staff sold underclassmen pictures and yearbook subscriptions. Later, the seniors had a magazine sale drive in which they earned about $1000 for the yearbook expenses. In September the staff attended a workshop in Mattoon sponsored by the Anchor Publishing Company, where the staff learned many new ideas and techniques for creating a better yearbook.

The staff was given infallible help by Mr. Ray Macy, the photographer.

Diversified Occupations is an organization giving occupational opportunity to many of the C.C.H.S. students. This year the students are using our community resources as a classroom for half of their school day. The rest of their day is spent earning the required credits for graduation. Some of the places of business that are employing the students are as follows: Warner Hospital, Stiles Construction, Sheriff's Office, Artistic Memorial, Thompson Paint Shop, Bill Conn, Pullen - Boos, Grimsley, Eisners, Deb Linthicum Construction, Taylor Abstract, Bray Construction, Service Soft, Krogers, Wayside, Weldon Springs Conservation, Moberly Construction, Toss Uniform, and J&E Machine Shop. This program is coordinated by Mr. Charles Green.

H.E.O. made and decorated, as one of their projects, Christmas trees to give to the elderly in the Nursing Homes. They have also helped with some of the welfare leagues. Not only do the girls attend school classes, but most of them work in the elementary schools. For the kindergarten, they have made stuffed animals and curtains.

The sponsor of this club is Mr. Charles Sprague. Marilyn Turner, a senior, was the head usher of this year. Both Mr. Sprague and Marilyn helped to organize the Ushers Club and to plan out the ushering program for this year.

To be a member of National Honor Society is one of the highest honors a student can receive. To be chosen for the organization, one must rank in the top one-third of the class. This scholarship is one of the four qualities a student must possess in order to become a member. The other three qualities are character, leadership, and service. The seniors in the top one-third of the class rank eight of their fellow students on these qualities, eight being the highest vote. The teachers also vote, and the faculty's vote counts twice the vote of the students'. Five per cent can be inducted in the spring. Mrs. Karr is the sponsor.

Money was earned by farming the seven acre F.F.T. plots. The first girls to become members after a change in the National F.F.T. Constitution were Kathy Cromwell and Leslie Brannan.

Pep Club

Over 360 students of CCHS showed their school spirit by joining Pep Club this year. Enthusiastically, these students sold cowbells and Christmas greenery in order to earn money. Some of this money was used to purchase the football picture for the hall outside the office. This left enough money to sponsor a party for these hard-working members as well as leaving enough to start next year's budget.

The officers for this year are: Chris Lillard, Pres.; Barb Finrock, Vice-Pres.; Cyndie Nixon, Sec.-Treas.; Teri Zastrow, Student Council.

Pep Club's main purpose is to boost the team's morale and to cheer them to victory.
